Curriculum delivery and documentation reflect the academic functioning of the course. Variety of exposure, opportunities makes trainees work immensely and constructively. Our students along with educating themselves tried and succeeded in training the public. Various Jathas and Field dramas were conducted on election and importance of franchise taught to them. On sandy day, in public place, street play was enacted. Tribal's occupied a special place in Kodagu. Even though they are nearer to nature, they are far away from the real world. Hence our students took awareness camps for tribal people. They advised them to be hygienic and distributed paste, soaps, napkins etc. Through guided library, students were allowed to introspect on their own personalities and made them to read different National and International Journals. Hence extending and expanding their literary proficiency considered prime place in curriculum delivery.
